Update on UNICEF’s Humanitarian Action

Second Regular Session of the Executive Board
June 13-June 16 2017
Overview: NE Nigeria, Somalia, South Sudan & Yemen

- Over 20 million people are at risk of famine
- Estimated 1.4 million severely malnourished children
2017 Programme Targets
Four Countries

Nutrition:
- Over 1 million children under 5 affected by SAM admitted for treatment

Health:
- 3.4 million children vaccinated for measles

WASH:
- 7.4 million people with access to safe drinking water

Child Protection:
- Nearly 950,000 children to receive emotional and other support

Education:
- 2.1 million children with access to formal and non-formal education
Results
January-April/May 2017

Somalia:
• Access to safe water (temporary and sustained) target: 1.5 million people
• Reached: 1.8 million people

South Sudan:
• Education target: 300,000 children
• Reached: 184,000 children

Measles vaccination:
• Target: 3.4 million children
• Reached: 4.6 million children

Severe acute malnutrition treatment:
• Target: 1 million children
• Reached: Nearly 248,000 children
Projections for children severely malnourished in 2017:

- NE Nigeria: 450,000
- Somalia: 275,000
- South Sudan: 273,600
- Yemen: 395,000

Suspected cholera and acute watery diarrhea cases:

- Somalia: Estimated 45,000 reported cases
- Yemen: Over 124,000 reported cases
Building Local Capacity
Somalia

- 71% of funds allocated to NGOs go to national NGOs
- 78% of partnerships with local NGOs
Inter-Agency Collaboration
South Sudan

- 21 integrated Rapid Response Mechanism missions in 2017
- More than 260,000 people including nearly 50,000 children reached
Accountability to Affected Populations
Yemen

- Over 6,000 trained community volunteers in monitoring and reporting
- Cash transfers feedback mechanism
Cash Transfers

Over 450,000 people reached with cash transfers in Jordan, Lebanon, Somalia & Yemen
• In Ethiopia, permanent water system established providing 150,000 South Sudan refugees and host communities with clean water
• In NE Nigeria, health centers are being restored and government medical personnel employed
• Multi-year planning and funding
Thank You