2014-2018 Programme Approaches and Strategies

• Bottleneck analysis in the enabling environment, services and demand promotion determinants to increase equity.

• Communication for social and behavioural change

• Promotion and empowerment of youth as agents of change

• Promoting the spirit of Delivering as One through complementarity with UNDP and UNFPA
UNICEF to lead on equitable access and use of quality social services for vulnerable and marginalized groups

Increased capacity of partners to deliver quality education and early child care and development

Increased capacity of civil society and Government to reduce under-five, maternal mortality and malnutrition

Engagement with monastic communities to deliver better results for child monks and nuns

2014-2018 Planned Results (1)
2014-2018 Planned Results (2)

- Improved access to and use of youth-friendly services and participation
- Increased access to appropriate services and support for survivors of gender-based violence
- Increased capacity of the National Child Protection System to prevent and respond to violence against children
- Improved quality and relevance of child-related data for appropriate decision making